SENATOR KELLY HEARD FROM AT LAST

... AT BAKER

BAKER CITY Aug 1...

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Colonel Kelly United States Senator arrived at Baker City this evening en route for Portland The distinguished Senator came upon our citizens like an apparition as he was supposed to have passed away to some other planet The last heard from him was just before the great fire in Chicago and it was supposed by many that he had exhaled on that occasion and would never more appear in the flesh His descent on Baker City was therefore a genuine surprise We were all glad because we think well of Kelly He never did anything and therefore who could feel any animosity toward him?

KELLY MAKES A SPEECH

Of course it wouldn't do to allow our long lost but now happily restored Senator to pass through Baker without making a speech So we called him out He stated that he was present at the Baltimore Convention (which will be news to most people), and that he held a proxy He was in favor of out and-out Democracy but it was no use to talk They were all determined to support H G, and he had to give in It was indeed a strange freak of political affairs He preferred Judge Davis but could not get a second When it became apparent that Greeley was to be nominated he Kelly was wofully disappointed He felt that the Convention was to shape the destiny of the Democratic party and ... it shaped right But Indiana and other States went over, and he then saw with great anguish of soul that he must go for H G or rebel against the Democratic party He had rebelled once against that party and got beat, and if he knew himself he never would rebel again He would always swallow the decrees of the party without flinching

SOFT APOLOGIES

The Senator held a proxy from Oregon in the Baltimore Convention The current for Greeley was irresistible Then should he accept H G or should Oregon stand out by herself? That was the agonizing question The Senator wrestled over it He was on the committee to prepare a platform and that committee accepted the platform adopted at Cincinnati What then could be done The Senator was coerced into the Greeley camp, and could not help himself

HARD TO SWALLOW

Now said the Senator it is hard for us to vote for Greeley Of course it is But we will do it Democrats in the other States are supporting him, and we must There is no help for it

THE SENATOR'S MIND IS TROUBLED

The government of this country is now a military despotism There has been no liberty in it since the last flickering spark of liberty was extinguished by the abolition of slavery years ago It is well known that Grant rules the country like a despot There is no security anywhere either for life or property Things now are worse than at any time during the war When Grant wants any man's horse, house or wife, he just takes it, and if the man protests, he is ordered to a dungeon What can a suffering people do? The great American Eagle, soaring aloft with rotundal swoop, looks down to-day on a people who are under the yoke of a beastly and pitiless tyrant Even freedom of speech is denied No man dares to say a word against the despot and the glorious golden grandeur of our former proud history is—is—is —yes fellow citizens, we don't like nigger equality and we won't have it

H G NOT SO BAD, AFTER ALL

But consider fellow Democrats Greeley ain't so dreadful bad after all He printed many articles in favor of the Democratic view of secession, and tried to beat Lincoln in 1864 After the South was whipped he stepped in and signed President Davis' bail bond, denounced the carpet baggers and now promises to lead our party back to the places of profit from which it has been excluded alas! too long It was a grievous insult to the Democracy that Mr Davis was put in irons and every Democrat ought to honor Greeley for helping him out Greeley believed Davis to be right His arrest was a disgrace Anything to beat Grant I—n the Black Republican party I say d—n the old Abolitionists!

RECONCILIATION

The South has been wronged and the children will take up the wrongs of their fathers and right them yet We must have peace

GENERAL GRIEVANCES

Carpet-baggers have robbed the South An immense corruption fund was sent to North Carolina, and our best Democrats bought up like cattle Grant is making great exertions We must overthrow this administration or be kept out of the offices forever

The Senator concluded with anything to beat Grant but numerous Democrats in the crowd were not converted, and the chance for a Greeley majority east of the mountains is very slim

Yamhill County

LAFAYETTE, August 14 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The call term of the Circuit Court for the trial of Thomas and Geroy for highway robbery has been in session here since Monday The trial of both has been had which resulted in the conviction of the latter and the acquittal of the former Sentence will be passed on Geroy this morning which will complete the business of the term

We had a light shower of rain last evening which has had a pleasant effect on the atmosphere

Farmers are deep in the work of harvesting —keeping their work well up to time

The work on the West Side railroad is being carried on to completion, and the iron horse is coming slowly but surely, and in a short time we will hear his snort The passenger depot at St Joseph is completed and soon a bridge will be built across the Yamhill at that place

Since the result of the North Carolina election was made known roosters and Greeley hats have been at a heavy discount and holders are despondent One more blow like that will do the work It has been definitely settled that there is only one Greeley Republican in the county

Later—Geroy is sentenced to four years in Wilkinds brick yard at Salem

BANKS' FORGIVING SPIRIT —It did not require much of a forgiving spirit on the part of some of the sorehead Republicans who have gone over to the Democracy for they were never badly injured! But for Banks who as General got so badly thrashed by the Democrats every time he met them during the late unpleasantness it required a most amazing Christian and exemplary spirit of forgiveness for him to shake hands across etc The fact is wherever Banks went after donning shoulderstraps if in the vicinity of Gen Lee's Democrats he was sure to get flogged They seemed to have a hankering after Banks because he was so easily thrashed Poor Banks he is one of we uns now,

Declined With Thanks

For some weeks it has been known that certain a y and imp tu nity has gentle men wh have embarked in the Chappaqua craft h l en lea ring t set up a combination for the el ti n f United States Senator a Salem n x th In as much as the Assembly has a considerable Republican majority of [illegible] the first thing that suggested itself was the idea of a conference with the Democracy to ascertain if they could be brought in to support a liberal scheme The nomination of Greeley the temporary abdication of the old Democratic party and the fusion for the Presidency, made this part of the plan very easy Democrats said yes of course Since then these liberal gentlemen have been busy in another direction The next thing was to find a sufficient number of members elected as Republicans who would become renegades combine with the waiting and expectant Democracy and elect some 'liberal' person of their own kind to the Senate This is now the game of the Greeley Democracy or rather, it would be, if there were the remotest prospect of success in that direction

But the little game doesn't work The plotters meet with numerous obstacles and discouragements None of them have been able to report favorable progress in the work of sounding Republican members G Washington Lawson Esq, came off with a flea in his ear from his attempt on Mr Engle of Marion county Others have had no better luck in other quarters. No Republican member has been found who hungers for an alliance with "Liberals" and Democrats for the mutual advantage and profit of the latter

The Republican party of the Union is now engaged in a struggle with a corrupt coalition which strives to seize the Government The present political situation is peculiar Fidelity to the National Republican party and to its candidates is a test of Republicanism and it is a test by which all men now in official position or seeking official position at the hands of Republicans, must be tried This, in the present posture of political affairs, is important and cannot be ignored Any alliance or combination with Democrats, for any purpose is a Democratic movement and would enure solely to that party's advantage The man who would consent to it is no Republican, for since the coalition of Cincinnati and Baltimore every alliance with Democrats opens a road out of the Republican party

Republicans feel entirely competent to manage their own affairs, and have no need of the assistance of people who have decided to support Greeley Doubtless those people are estimable in many ways, but inasmuch as they do not intend to help us to elect Grant and Wilson we can get along without their help in electing a Senator and in the general business of legislation

Key to the Last War.

The first volume of an official history of the late war between Germany and France has been published at Berlin In it is contained a memorandum drawn up in the winter of 1868 by Gen. Moltke, discussing the relative positions of Germany and France and the plan of operations to be pursued by the former when a war should break out, an event which was regarded only as a question of time The relative forces of the two countries were compared and methods stated by which the German troops could be massed most effectually against France Surprisingly accurate information as to the numbers, discipline and armament of the French forces was in possession of Gen. Moltke In fact, the condition of the French army was better known at the German War Office than by the French Emperor himself We quote a paragraph or two of Moltke's memorada

> Much will depend upon our availing ourselves of our strength at the very outset Even should we only have the forces of Northern Germany at our command, we may count upon the possession of superior numbers soon after the beginning of the campaign. This advantage will be greatly increased should the French divide their troops and employ a portion of them on expeditions against Southern Germany or the North German shores.

So bunglingly had the diplomacy of France been managed that the declaration of war by that nation upon Prussia was made to appear at once as an attack on the integrity of all Germany, and hence the South German States, whose aid or at least whose neutrality France seems to have relied on, made common cause at once with Prussia To show the system by which the vast forces of Germany were so suddenly thrown upon France, we quote this paragraph

> We are prepared for mobilization at a moment's notice. With six railways at our disposal to transport the troops to the country between the Rhine and the Moselle, we cannot easily be taken by surprise and, to make sure that everything shall be in order when the moment arrives we have drawn up a list, showing the train by which every battalion is to be conveyed, with the time of starting and arrival accurately fixed On the tenth day after the order of mobilization the first detachments will arrive in the neighborhood of the French frontier. By the 15th day they will have been increased to two corps d armee On the 18th day they will number 300,000 men, and on the 20th day they will be provided with nearly all the baggage and ammunition trains and the commissaria service

These plans were carried out to the letter The French had no such preparations, and seem to have had no adequate idea of the vastness of the German resources, or of the energy which Germany could throw into the first onset

A Berlin (Prussian) letter says the only power which has declined to enter into the arrangements with the Government concerning the election of a new Pope is France In reply to overtures made, Thiers simply declared that he had no reason to believe that the next conclave would not be held in due form The answer is the more significant as it is well known at Berlin that the French Government has been endeavoring for some time past to secure the succession for the triple crown for the French Cardinal Already they have so far succeeded in this as to induce a number of Cardinals to entertain a plan that the conclave should withdraw to French soil and proceed with the election in the city of Pau, close to the Spanish frontier The correspondent adds that the election of the next Pope will be a political event of immense consequence, and perhaps may give rise to a fresh grouping of powers

Speaking of General Banks apostasy the Boston Advertiser says the first effect of it will be to let him out of Congress His district will throw him overboard by from five to ten thousand majority It is understood that he will be the Democratic candidate for re-election. Massachusetts Republicans know how to deal with apostates Two years hence Sumner's experience will be similar The Advertiser says that Banks is a man who "has a passion for sensations, and anything theatrical upsets his judgment and sends his wits astray

Political Points Plainly Pictured

Nast's latest hits in Harpers W[eekly] are fully up to the very best of his previous efforts in the line of political cartoons "Any Thing to Get In" represents a scene from Virgil's Siege of Troy slightly modernized to suit the times and people It will be remembered that after nine years siege the Greeks despairing of capturing the [illegible] fair fighting resorted to a stratagem one of wh [illegible] would [illegible] to all [illegible] to pass into [illegible] small force [illegible] were concealed within its belly and the commander of the Greeks took to their [illegible] and sailed, apparently for home The ruse was successful the Trojans drew the horse within the walls of Troy as an object of curiosity and a trophy of the demoralized enemy but a few nights later the Greek army returned and with the aid of their friends inside the walls captured and entered the city after a ten years siege

In Nast's picture we see an immense wooden toy horse modeled after the most attractive juvenile pattern with a Greeley head and Brown tail Surrounding this wond script are the disheartened Greeks among which it is not difficult to distinguish the well known features of the Tammany ring and other shining Democratic lights watching the select few who are about concealing themselves within the timber steed Ku Klux bruisers plug uglies and others of that stripe compose this forlorn hope Schurz sits astride the animal, while in the back ground looms up the modern Troy (Washington) with its White House Treasury and other departments temptingly in view while Uncle Sam looks over the wall and says, "You can't come the old Trojan horse game on me"

"The Cat's Paw" representing the old fable, is illustrated with Greeley as the cat and Boss Tweed as the monkey, and "The Babes of the Wood" by the same artist are good things to laugh at

Even Nast's enemies cannot overlook the originality and excellence of his designs nor fail to admit their telling effect

A Georgia Democrat on Greeley and Grant

Hon Philip Clayton a prominent Democrat of Georgia whose letter denouncing Greeley will be remembered as the first leading Democratic protest against the Baltimore indorsement of Greeley is out in a second letter replying to criticism on his course, and giving reasons why he concludes to support President Grant and vigorously In brief, his argument—and it is well put—is that Mr Greeley has been for a life time a bitter partisan leader against the South and its policy especially very bitter and vindictive, while Grant has been only the magnanimous citizen soldier simply following the line of duty and moving steadily to its requirements Mr Clayton characterizes his conduct to the South as generous and charitable, and closes a remarkable letter with the following words

> What a contrast! The one full of humanity and the milk of human kindness the other, an execrable wretch, belching forth feelings and sentiments that should have disgraced him in the zenith of his cruelty Others under the lash of petty despotism may feel dishonor at their selection in supporting Mr Greeley Every feeling of my heart revolts at the sacrifice and no condemnation can influence me to make it

Needless Irritation

It grieves the Mountain Sentinel a Democratic paper of Eastern Oregon to learn that the colored vote of the South is impregnably Republican It says

> The OREGONIAN glories that the four millions of blacks in this country are so united, and builds high hopes that this condition will continue its party in political supremacy for four years more How long will the people shut their eyes to the plainest facts and follow the lead of unprincipled men?

Unprincipled men, quoth a! The Democratic party surrendered its principles and nominated Greeley expressly to catch the colored vote Not succeeding, it is disgusted, and too much irritated to reason calmly

It is thought to be very bad for the blacks of the South to combine on the Republican side Pray, haven't they as much right to do this as most of the whites of that section have to combine on the Democratic side? Be candid now

The Oregon Herald says it can't blame Gen Kilpatrick for bringing an action against the New York Times to vindicate his character from such a slander as that contained in the charge that he had tried to force an abandoned woman in Chilian society Then the General should also bring an action for libel against the Oregon Herald since that paper in common with nine tenths of the Democratic journals of the United States brought forward this very same 'slander against Kilpatrick two or three years ago These papers gave a long string of disgusting details, which the Times has omitted Kilpatrick was recalled from Chile, abandoned the Republican party and joined the ranks of his slanderers who are now trying to give him a new character and are indignant that anybody should question his purity

Here is the Oregon Herald quoting the New York Herald as saying that if North Carolina should give a Democratic majority it must be regarded as settling the whole question in favor of Greeley's election Yes but as it gave a Republican majority, it must be regarded as settling the question as to his defeat, don't you see

The Political Situation in Georgia

The following is a dispatch from Atlanta (Ga) bearing date of August 2 It reveals a highly interesting political situation in Georgia and foreshadows a union of Republicans and anti Greeley Democrats

> The division in the Democratic party in this State seems to be greater than was at first anticipated On the 24th ult a packed State Convention nominated Hon James M Smith on the Greeley platform, for Governor On the evening of the 1st inst a ratification meeting was held in this city in accordance with public notice given nearly one week previous Great preparations had been made for a large and enthusiastic meeting Distinguished speakers from different parts of the State were expected to be present, but the meeting was small and no speakers except a few third rate men were present Distinguished Democratic leaders and orators were known to have been in the city, but they did not put in an appearance There was little or no enthusiasm Scarcely a cheer was heard The speakers all acknowledged that they individually did not want to vote for Greeley and Brown They felt they had no heart in advocating their election but since the Baltimore Convention had nominated the ticket every good Democrat was honorably bound to support it. No resolutions were offered, and when the vote was taken to ratify the nomination about as many voted in the negative as in the affirmative The meeting adjourned at an early hour and is regarded by its friends as a failure
> At the same time and within 100 yards of this Greeley meeting was a meeting of the Anti Greeley Democrats who oppose the Baltimore and Cincinnati Conventions This was held for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Straight out Democratic Club About 500 persons were in attendance and some 125 joined the Club most of them residents of the city Col Jack Brown Sumter Johnson of Spaulding and Col W H Deems of Fulton were the speakers Resolutions were passed strongly condemnatory of Greeley and the Cincinnati platform and a State Convention of that portion of the Democracy opposed to Greeley was called to meet in Atlanta on the 20th inst A Committee of twenty one was appointed to confer with the Republicans through their State Central Committee

Congressman Golladay, of Tennessee, has declared that he is for Greeley because he signed Jeff Davis' bail bond and was in favor of paying the South for the emancipation of slaves

From the La Grande Sentinel : On Saturday a little child aged eighteen months of Mr Christison living near Summerville drank a small quantity of diluted concentrated lye from a vessel sitting on the edge of a cook stove The mother had prepared some for use and the child drank it while her back was turned At last accounts the child was at the point of death and probably by this time its death has occurred Another warning

The Mountain Sentinel (La Grande) says "It is reported that David Henry —one of the financially heavy men of this valley—is reported to have been killed by the Indians somewhere between Boise and Salt Lake while in charge of a band of Texan cattle The report is believed by his most intimate friends, but from whence the report emanated we could not learn John Creighton and young Tom Baird were in company with him

THE TERRITORIES

A hunting party from Walla Walla lost all their camping traps by a fire in the Blue Mountains last week

Yakima county Washington Territory is said to be all on fire for Greeley The thermometer stands at 110 in the shade

A Walla Walla paper says Phil Lippett, for many years a merchant in this place is about to take up his residence in Portland and is arranging to open a large mercantile house there

In Salt Lake City, at the election on Monday, George Q Cannon, Church candidate, received 1,111 votes, and George R Maxwell, Opposition 5?6 Cannon's majority 2 5?8 In Corinne, a Gentile town and in some of the mining districts Maxwell ran better but in the agricultural region the Mormon majority was larger in proportion than that in Salt Lake City The official returns will undoubtedly show the Mormon vote to be five times that of the opposition

Gen Dix's Letter

The telegraph gave us only a portion of General Dix's scathing letter on Horace Greeley After stating under five heads the chief reasons why he opposed Greeley (which was the part of the letter telegraphed here) Gen Dix proceeded to say

> The coalition which has been formed to promote his election is one of the most extraordinary in the history of parties in respect both to the discordant elements it embraces and the surrender of principles it involves The Cincinnati Convention called to bring before the people important measures of reform nominated Mr Greeley to the surprise of the whole country, knowing him, in regard to one of those measures, to be implacable and nominated him too against the wishes and judgment of the chief promoters of the movement who accepted him either with avowed or secretly concealed disgust, which would be more creditable to their feelings if the act of acceptance were not utterly irreconcilable with their principles
>
> The Democratic Convention at Baltimore indorse and commend him to the support of their party, not as the exponent of any principle they have professed or any measure they have advocated but as the known and bitter opponent of both—the man who perhaps of all has been the most malignant enemy of the Democracy, impeaching its integrity, traducing its motives and vilifying its character The adoption of such a man as their candidate for the Chief Magistracy of the Union is the most conspicuous abandonment of political principles known to party contests It remains to be seen whether the great body of the Democratic voters and the true friends of reform, can be made parties to this unscrupulous coalition between political leaders
> That Gen Grant has committed errors his most sincere friends admit but, if his errors had been four fold more numerous he would, in my opinion, be a much better Chief Magistrate than Greeley He has, in that capacity, done much for which he deserves the thanks of the country Above all he has kept it at peace, notwithstanding the efforts of sensation journals and popularity seeking politicians to provoke hostilities with Spain on the question of Cuba and with Great Britain on the Alabama claims and fisheries If regardless of these things and his invaluable services during the late civil war they should set him aside for Greeley if the latter a mere erratic politician, untried in any important public trust, should be elected Chief Magistrate of the Union a Union which would not exist had his counsel been followed, and if the man who, of all others, has done more to preserve it should be discarded for such a successor, so illy qualified and unscrupulously sustained the example would be most deplorable in its influence upon high motives to political actions, and justify the most painful forebodings as to the future

Sound Reason

Of all the German papers in New York City but a single one supports Greeley Here are some extracts from the New York Handels Zeitung a strictly non partisan paper

> We never had any desire nor have we any at present, to play a part in politics but we are compelled to touch this slippery subject whenever political events react on finances or whenever our financial leaders step upon it Without being an admirer of Gen G and we think that every possible effort ought to be made to defeat Greeley under whose administration we would have to jump from the frying pan into the fire
>
> For a number of years Greeley has shown in his official organ the New York Tribune ideas about financial policy which betray the grossest ignorance of all financial principles of sound administration Horace Greeley has always been too much in love with his own hobbies and when once in power would certainly try to realize them, no matter what it costs Under the most favorable circumstances the election of Mr Greeley would be followed by blind experiments detrimental to all departments, but certainly ruinous to our finances It is for these practical reasons and entirely independent of our love for the Republican party whose sins of omission we have never shielded, that we would consider the victory of Horace Greeley and the Democratic party equal to a national disaster.

A Ticklish Question in Ethics

In a speech made by Mr Frederick Douglass in North Carolina during the late canvass he gave some amusing incidents of his life as a slave and among others the following

> I was hungry once very hungry indeed and I had a little conference with a brother slave on the subject of helping myself to a turkey that I saw fluttering in one of the out houses I told Sandy (for it was Sandy Jenkins) that I was hungry, wanted something to eat but that I had religious scruples against helping myself to that turkey I knew that he was a praying man, a God fearing man, and I wanted his advice on the subject He told me that it was rather a ticklish question in ethics There was some risk about it, but so far as the act itself was concerned it was perfectly legitimate He said you are your master's property Yes said I That turkey is your master's property? Yes If you put that turkey into you (laughter) that turkey does not cease to be the property of your master but only adds to the value of the property in another form [Laughter So it was simply a question of removal I said that it stood to reason, the whole thing was clear to reason, and I helped myself [Great laughter

The Louisville Convention

In a letter to the New York Express, Col Blanton Duncan, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, replies with great force to an attempt on the part of that paper to ridicule the movement The letter closes with these paragraphs

> The district conventions will be called in due time The Democrats who agree with me will show their hands and there will be many of them The delegates will go to Louisville with their own money for the sturdy farmers mechanics and those who propose to engage in the support principle do not rely upon the vast corruption fund part of which has been so lately used in North Carolina nor upon the [illegible] of the administration The mass of [illegible] are not with us So much the better The people can be heard in that National Convention and [illegible] are you and your [illegible] their importance that the [illegible] men has ten times the strength [illegible] the Cincinnati Convention had and that we have [illegible] confidence [illegible]

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 15 1872

CITY.

[illegible] —A very ludicrous occurrence took place yesterday afternoon at the corner of Washington and First streets The principal actors in the scene were a small poodle and the redoubtable pound keeper It seems that the poodle's owner had failed to procure the necessary license Under the existing ordinance such a dog was liable to seizure at any moment on sight The pound keeper saw his meat and with a hearty good will he went for it By using gentle means he induced the unsuspecting little creature to come to him He seized the animal by the back of the neck with one hand and with the other he felt for his rope safely stowed away in the recesses of his breast pocket But the rope did not come out very easily and while his attention was directed to its extrication the dog eluded his clutch and ran off The animal was so hotly pursued that it soon took refuge in a pile of loose planks The valiant pound keeper, having two bright silver dollars before his optics, followed in close pursuit. He made several grasps after the prize, but failed to secure it By this time a host of dogs gathered around attracted by the cries of the pursued animal and a great number of spectators gathered on the corners to witness the "fun" At last the pound keeper caught the dog, but its sharp teeth produced a telling effect, similar to a hot potato, and the pound fellow dropped his game and rolled over the animal Over and over rolled the two, sometimes one and then the other uppermost, until at length the worried little beast darted away from its tormentor, and shot howling down street leaving the vanquished pound man sprawling on the ground All the dogs set up a wail of joy at the escape the crowd cheered and clapped their hands while peals of laughter arose on all sides

ARRESTED —On the arrival of the bark Manila at Astoria from Hongkong with passengers and freight several weeks ago, the vessel was taken under arrest by Collector Hinman The seizure was based on the following facts Soon after she came into port the Collector and his deputies carefully counted the whole number of passengers on board There was found to be 419 According to the clearance documents, 424 passengers had been shipped at Hongkong On the passage five had died, making the number, as before stated, 419 The superficous space of the vessel was next carefully measured by the officers It was found to contain [illegible] 155 cubic feet. Allowing, as required by law, [illegible] feet to every passenger, there would be accommodations only for 368 passengers. By this calculation there were 51 passengers more shipped on board than allowed by the law This being the case the vessel was placed in charge of Inspector Montgomery, and allowed to proceed to this port The facts of the case coming to the knowledge of the United States District Attorney and Marshal in an official manner, the matter was examined into and "worked up," and a warrant placed in the hands of Marshal Young yesterday for the arrest of Captain Aborn, the master of the vessel An examination of the charge was partially made yesterday afternoon before United States Commissioner Wilcox The case was continued until this morning, and the defendant admitted to bail for his appearance in the sum of $500

NEW BOOKS —The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library

The Nautilus, or Cruising Under Canvas, by J N Maffitt formerly of the United States Navy

The Maiden and Married Life of Mary Powell, afterward Mistress Milton

The Spanish Barber a Tale, by the author of "Mary Powell"

The Household of Sir Thomas Moore by the same new edition, with an appendix

Cherry and Violet, a Tale of the Great Plague, by the same

Septimus Felton, or the Elixir of Life, by Nathaniel Hawthorne

Thrown Together, a Story, by Florence Montgomery, author of "Misunderstood"

Spectrum Analysis in its Application to Terrestrial Substances and the Physical Constitution of the Heavenly Bodies, familiarly explained by Dr H Schellen

The Household Cyclopædia of General Information, containing Ten Thousand Receipts in all the Useful and Domestic Arts, by Henry Hawthorne

Speeches of John Philpot Curran while at the Bar, edited by James A. L Whittier, Counselor at law

Glitter and Gold, by Horace Field, B. A., author of a "Home for the Homeless."

The United States Tariff and Internal Revenue Law, compiled by Horace E D[illegible].

NARROW ESCAPE —During the high winds on Tuesday evening a Chinese washman narrowly escaped a serious if not fatal accident. He had mounted the flat roof of one of the washing establishments on Alder street with a large basket full of clothes, for the purpose of spreading them out to dry. As he was in the act of lifting his burden from his shoulders a sudden gust of wind swept along The basket was torn from his hands, and, together with the contents, thrown to the ground The Chinaman by this means was also thrown off his balance He fell from the platform and rolled down the steep roof Just before the final leap he caught to the shingles near the eaves, and was enabled to save himself from a fall Lusty cries soon brought several of his countrymen to his assistance but they were so excited as to be unable to relieve him in any way, or save him from the dangers of his situation After the lapse of nearly five minutes, and when "John's" strength was almost gone, a white man came to his rescue and drew him up by a rope The distance which he would have fallen was about 25 feet. Crockery, timbers, etc, were thickly strewn around, so that he could hardly have expected to escape with less than serious if not fatal injuries

SECURELY BRACED —We were slightly in error in stating that the newly raised spire of Trinity Church was held only by four guys, and that danger was likely to result to the structure from a heavy gale of wind. Subsequently, we have been informed by Jordan, the architect, that there are, in fact, twenty two strong iron bolts, some of them twenty four feet long and one and a half inches in diameter, which connect the spire and tower frames together, and these again are so connected with the framing of the church itself that the spire could not be thrown over without carrying with it tower and church. That the guy ropes should show the strain upon them from the force of the wind, is simply a natural consequence Had they been removed, as they might have been, no vibration would have been noticed, any more than it was with other spires in the city

FLORAL GARDEN —An ordinance was introduced in the City Council last evening, authorizing the Committee on Streets and Public Property to enter into a contract with Mr L Pfunder, of the Proserpina, situated on block 133, for the lease of that block for a term of five years. The Council, as we understand it proposes to lease him that block for floral purposes for five years, for which he is to pay the sum of $100 annually The block will be used as at present Mr Pfunder proposes to beautify the grounds in many respects, diversify it with walks flowers, etc, and also plant out shade and ornamental trees, and at the expiration of the lease to leave all such shrubbery on the block During that time he will keep the enclosure around the block in repair

REGULATIONS —Among a number of regulations adopted by the Police Commissioners for the guidance of the police force of the city, we note the following No member, while on duty shall enter a saloon, or any place where intoxicating liquors are sold no officer shall introduce, keep or have any spirituous liquors about the Police Court premises nor shall any officer use tobacco or smoke either in the Captain's room or about the Court room We understand these rules will be rigidly enforced, and any infraction of them will be punished by reprimand, suspension or dismissal

BROUGHT BACK —Zed Wilson who was indicted some weeks ago on a charge of subornation of perjury, was brought down to the city last evening in the custody of Sheriff Scott of Marion county Wilson it will be remembered ran off and forfeited his bonds soon after his indictment He will probably not be admitted to bail again so that this community may congratulate itself upon being freed from the presence of this notorious and miserable specimen of humanity He is now in jail and will be likely to remain there until the November term of the Circuit Court

ACCEPTED —At a recent meeting of Willamette Engine Company No 1, specially called, it was determined to accept the invitation tendered that Company by the Fire Department of Albany to pay them a friendly visit in the course of a few weeks. A committee, we learn, has been appointed by the company to make all the preliminary arrangements Such friendly and social relations between the different Departments ought to be encouraged and cultivated

THE BRIDGE —As will be seen by referring to the proceedings of the Council the ordinance adopting the plans etc for the proposed bridge across the river was laid over and its final passage deferred for a week longer Meantime we learn that surveys are being made for the most suitable locality for the bridge and also borings along the river bed in a number of places to ascertain the most feasible point

EXCURSION AND PARADE —We understand that a meeting was held a few days since by the firemen of Vancouver in relation to the proposed parade on the 26th inst the anniversary of the organization of the first company in that place A very definite action was taken farther than it was resolved to celebrate that day There is some talk that the firemen will visit this city during the day and returning to Vancouver wind up the exercises with a grand ball

INJURED —During the heavy winds prevailing on Tuesday, while the Stark street ferry was making a trip to the eastern bank an accident befell a small boy who was playing on that side near where the cable is secured Owing to the immense strain, caused by the wind blowing down stream, one of the fastenings slipped and struck the lad, knocking him several yards, but fortunately, doing but slight injury We were unable to ascertain the boy's name

LIGHTLESS —Still the city clock withholds the light of its cheering countenance after the hour of 8 o'clock P M, from the gaze of the public We learn that the gas fixtures are all ready the clock has lately been cleaned up, and the Gas Company are still willing to furnish gas according to the proposition, at reduced rates Now in the name of all reason, why is not the town clock illuminated? There has certainly been enough child's play about the matter

AN ADDITION —An addition has been nearly completed to the Insane Asylum, which is to be used as a place of amusement for the unfortunate inmates and also as a chapel in which religious services will be held The addition is 30x40 feet one story high, 16 feet in the clear The sides have been enclosed the floor laid and the roof completed It will soon be ready for the purposes for which it has been constructed

CLEANING OUT —Yesterday the crew on board the bark Manila were engaged in cleaning out and purifying the hold of that vessel The sanitary condition of that ship must have been sadly neglected during the passage judging from the piles of filthy garbage which was scattered about the hold. Cleanliness, however, would be a difficult thing to enforce rigidly among a crowd of Chinese passengers

THAT WALL —The stone wall enclosing the Court House block has been nearly completed All that remains to be done now is to add a coping stone of nearly one foot in thickness around on the top of the present wall On the top of this will be placed a neat little iron fence nearly three feet in height, which will make a substantial enclosure about six feet high from the sidewalks on each side

AN ALIBI —Brady, who was arrested at Linn City the other day by officer McCoy on suspicion of being connected with the recent robbery at Oregon City, had a preliminary examination on Tuesday He proved an alibi and was discharged Lee was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court, in November next

JUDGMENT AND COSTS —Thos. Beal brought a civil action against Dr G W Brown on Tuesday in Justice Davis' Court The plaintiff sued for the recovery of alleged wages which were due him for labor performed for the defendant while in his employ Judgment was rendered against the defendant for $195 and accruing costs in the case

GAS TANK —The excavation on the block near the intersection of F and Sixth streets by the gas company, for a new gas tank, is progressing with vigor. The excavating will be completed within the next ten days, and the afterwork will follow at once By the first of November it is expected to have the tank ready to hold gas

BRIDGE MEETING —A meeting was held on Tuesday evening, at the rooms of the East Portland Council, by the citizens of that place, to take some action with reference to the proposed bridge across the Wallamet The meeting adjourned to meet again at the same place to morrow evening at 7 o'clock.

LICENSES —Up to the 14th inst. but three marriage licenses were issued from the County Clerk's office. This decided decrease in the number of cases of matrimony is probably attributable more to the engrossment of the public mind in seeking seaside resorts and the languishing effects of the weather than any other cause

JAIL IMPROVEMENTS —Some very substantial additions and improvements are being added to the County Jail, wood sheds, etc, constructed A great many changes for the better have been made to the furnishings etc of the clerks and sheriff's offices since the induction into office of the present incumbents

INSURED —The warehouses and wharves which were destroyed on last Thursday night, belonged to Messrs Comstock & Co, and were insured as follows Liverpool London & Globe, $6 333 33 Hartford $5,000 Imperial, $7 666 66 making a total of $19,000, which will fully cover all losses sustained by the fire

UNLUCKY CUT —On Tuesday afternoon while one of the ship's carpenters on the Manila was engaged in hewing a piece of timber with an adz the tool slipped one side and striking the ankle of the man, inflicted a fearful gash The wound was dressed and the sufferer was doing well at latest accounts

RAIN —This welcome visitor came down in limited quantities last evening—just sufficient to cool and purify the atmosphere, loaded with miasma, make us all breathe freer, lay the dust good, and do the crops no harm The weather clerk will accept the obligations of this grateful community

NEW MUSIC —Mr George L DePrans, of Gray's Music Store, has laid on our table the following new music, just issued "We'll Vote for Grant Again," a splendid campaign song "The Days when I was Young," and "At the Window"

STOCK SUBSCRIBED —We learn that about $60 000 has so far been subscribed to the Wallamet bridge As yet, not a thorough canvas for subscriptions has been made, but the project thus far has met with very encouraging success

SPECIAL MEETING —There will be a special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners at their room this morning at 10 o clock for the transaction of special business

THE ROBBERY AT OREGON CITY

OREGON CITY, Aug 14, 1872

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Lee and Brady, the men arrested by Officer McCoy on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of $1 600 from Postmaster Bacon's safe on the 6th inst, were brought before Justice Burns for examination on Tuesday morning Messrs Cronin & Ball, of Portland, prosecuted, and Chas E Warren defended the case The evidence against Brady was not deemed sufficient to bind him over, but as regards Lee, the Court decided to send the case to the Grand Jury As he could not furnish bail he was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff The evidence in the case was entirely circumstantial, as no clue has as yet been obtained as to the money stolen Mr Bacon has been for some years accumulating all the old and curious coins he could collect, and the robbers took all the silver ones (worth about $150) but did not take the gold It may be that an attempt to dispose of these coins may lead to their detection yet The man Lee admitted to McCoy that he knew when the job was put up and could put him on the track of the thieves for a consideration His conduct and prevarications however led McCoy to believe that he had a hand in it himself which seems from the decision to be Judge Burns' opinion

PERSONAL.

Count and Countess De Pourtales (nee Miss Jennie Holladay) are at Saratoga

It is said that Senator Kelly was seen on the streets last evening, having reached the city via Dalles People looked on him with wonder, having utterly forgotten him, until his presence recalled him to recollection

It is said that ever since Joaquin Miller and Walt Whitman met in New York they have stuck to each other like Siamese twins Miller lives in a little shanty near the river in the upper part of the city His only companions are Walt Whitman and General Thomas Thomas twenty years ago, was a New York reporter, but he has prospered in Nicaragua and keeps a bank account now

Medicinal Poisons on the Wane

The patriarchs took no mercury no bismuth no bromide of potassium no iodine no strychnine, no quinine Happy old gentlemen they did not even know of the existence of these "specifics" and yet they lived until it seemed that Death had forgotten them Their medicines were herbs and roots They have left this fact on record and the world seems to be now taking note of it and returning to the first principles of medication Hostetter's Stomach Bitters the purest and most efficacious vegetable restorative of the day is also the most popular Thousands of persons who only a few years ago believed [illegible] figure in the pharmacopia now [illegible] tonic [illegible] alterative [illegible] remedy for dyspepsia [illegible] debility [illegible] headache intermittent fevers and all the [illegible] disturbances of the stomach the liver the [illegible] organs and the brain The time is not far distant when [illegible] reckless [illegible] practitioners [illegible] physicians As it is the thinking public who are generally ahead of professionals [illegible] already put the dangerous preparations aside and adopted Hostetter's Bitters in their stead as a safe and excellent household medicine adapted to almost every ailment except the organic and deadly contagious diseases. For more than twenty years this famous restorative and preventive has been annually strengthening its hold upon the public confidence and it now takes the lead of every advertised medicine manufactured in this country

My Dream.

BY G.

I dream of a beautiful time,
When the world shall happy be,
When elephants and hyenas
Shall blossom on every tree.
When tamarinds and potatoes
Shall cease their dreadful roar
When turnip trees shall blossom
In the garden forevermore.

I dream of a great age,
Whose people shall go west,
[illegible]
In the land they love the best
Where pig-iron and molasses
Shall bloom on every [illegible]
And the chickens [illegible]
While [illegible]

I am weary of seeing the [illegible] age
Handle the rake and hoe
I am weary of watching and waiting
For the grasshopper band to grow;
I long for the time when [illegible]
Shall cope with bread and [illegible]
When hens shall lay tomatoes,
And horses spin raw silk.

Oh, sweet were the vanished hours
When I wandered adown the glen,
And wreathed my brow with tomatoes,
Or plucked the ripened hen
When the donkey twined up the trellis,
And the cucumber chirped in the grass,
And the sweet potatoe whistled
To its mate in the mountain pass.

But gone are the days of childhood,
And manhood's dreams are mine,
Yet I long for the bygone hours
As I sit 'neath the turkey-vine.
Oh, wreathe your blossoms about me,
And soothe my aching breast,
While the gooseberry plaintively warbles
And lulls me into rest.

Agassiz's Glacial Discoveries.

A very interesting letter of Professor Agassiz to Professor Benjamin Pierce, Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, gives a succinct account of his observations of the geological phenomena of the southern portion of the South American continent. The chief of the Hassler Expedition has turned his previous experience in the Alps to good account. It could hardly be expected that in a "flying visit" Agassiz could have made measurements and descended into the details of glacier motion and magnitude, as did Forbes and himself in their studies of the Alpine glaciers. But though the professor had not been able to make any observations bearing upon the rate of motion or the size and extent of the South American glaciers, he has succeeded in adding many new facts to our previous knowledge.

Agassiz followed the east line around from Montevideo, on the Atlantic, to Glacier Bay, on the Pacific coast. He has carefully examined the ground previously gone over by Darwin and other celebrated travelers. He has found traces everywhere—in the "erratic" pebbles and boulders found on islands as well as the mainland, in the roches moutonnes, in the polished hillsides and the moraines as well as the glaciers even now existing—that ice action has been a very prominent factor in the moulding and fashioning of the surface of this portion of the world. Indeed, Professor Agassiz is prepared to go further. He claims, that, as fire and water are now universally acknowledged as the great agents in the creation of the world as we know it, so at no distant period will ice be added to the number. Very much of the denudation usually attributed to meteorological agents and to submarine iceberg-planing, the Professor confidently claims for ice spread over the surface of the land. We are inclined to accept this view. We think too much has been said about Plutonic and Neptunian action, and too little attention has been paid to the other great agents which have aided them in their task.

Agassiz is well aware that this view will not pass unchallenged, and he therefore proceeds to make it as secure as possible. He draws a distinction between glaciers, however ancient and however large, and a coating of ice which he is positive covered the greater portion of the earth's surface—the equatorial limits are not yet settled—during what is vaguely known as the "glacial epoch." He rejects with some heat the view held in many quarters that all the phenomena of the drift period, upon which the supporters of the glacial period more especially rely, can be explained by a supposed enlargement of the ordinary glaciers. Agassiz shows that while the glaciers of the South American continent, both ancient and modern, have acted and still act in all directions, the action of the ice in the glacial epoch trended from the south northward This is one of the most important discoveries made during the expedition, and in describing the observation on which this inference rests the Professor corrects some of Darwin's statements, though he eulogizes that traveler as having been almost alone in carefully observing the phenomena.

The Professor calls the attention of Professor Pierce to the complete fulfillment of the prophecy as to the finding of "drift," and adds his belief that when the southern portion of Africa and Australia are examined, as clear indications of an extensive glacial period will be found there as have been formerly discovered in Europe, and are now known to exist in South America as the result of Agassiz's labors. In this connection, he says, he finds no reason to believe that Adhemar's notion on the complimentary character of glacial phenomena—that is, that while one hemisphere was enjoying a temperate climate, the other was buried under a thick mantle of ice—has any foundation in fact. This ingenious mode of connecting astronomical and geological phenomena may be considered as a brilliant scientific vagary.

There is one point on which Agassiz grows eloquent. He compares the Swiss glaciers with those of South America in the neighborhood of the Straits of Magellan, and finds them and their effects very similar. The polished hills, the rouches moutonnes, the moraines, and the rest of the scenery forcibly reminded him of his native country. The Professor does not give us much information on his dredging operations, but he is constantly adding to his collections. He made a discovery of a salt lake more than 100 feet above the level of the sea—a clear proof of the same species as those on the above. He obtained specimens of both.

R. Crusoe's Island.

[From the Japan Herald.]

At a distance of less than three days' voyage from Valparaiso, in Chili, and nearly in the same latitude with this important port on the western coast of South America, is the island of Juan Fernandez, where once upon a time Alexander Selkirk, during a solitary banishment of four years, gathered the material for De Foe's "Robinson Crusoe." This island, little thought of by the inhabitants of the Chilean coast-land, has lately become of some interest by the fact that in December, 1869, it was ceded to a society of Germans, under the guidance of Robert Wehrhan, an engineer from Saxony, for the purpose of colonization. The entrepreneur of the expedition, Robert Wehrhan, left Germany eleven years since, passed several years in England, served as major through the war between the American States, and was subsequently engaged as engineer with the Ceropasco Railroad in South America. He and his society, about sixty or seventy individuals, have taken possession of the island, which is described as being a most fertile and lovely spot. They found there countless herds of goats, some thirty half wild horses and sixty donkeys, the latter animals proving to be exceedingly shy. They brought with them cows and other cattle, swine, numerous fowls, and all the various kinds of agricultural implements, with boats and fishing apparatus, to engage in different pursuits and occupations. The grotto, made famous as Robinson's abode, situated in a spacious valley, covered with large fields of wild turnips—a desirable food for swine—has been assigned to the hopeful young Chilean gentleman to whom the charge of the procine part of the society's stock has been entrusted, and he and his proteges are doing very well in their new quarters. Juan Fernandez is one of the stations where whaling vessels take in water and food.

THE KRUPP GUN.—The Magdeburg Gazette says that the object of the experiments which are now being made near Berlin with the 28 centimetre Krupp gun is only to ascertain its power of penetration, the great superiority of the gun having been so clearly shown by the recent trials made with it in Russia that its adoption by the Prussian government may be regarded as certain. The iron target used at the Russian trials was only nine inches thick, and it is hoped that the gun will be able to penetrate a plate of at least ten inches. The experiments near Berlin are being made with plates of various thicknesses up to a maximum of twelve inches. The weight of the barrel of the gun is 27,500 kilogrammes, and of the entire gun 44,250 kilogrammes. The barrel, which is rifled with thirty-six grooves, is 240 inches long. The gun is loaded with a charge of 88 pounds of powder, its initial velocity is 1,394 feet, and its cost is stated by the German Admiralty to be 50,000 thalers. It is at first only to be used for the protection of coasts and harbors. Krupp has, also, adds the Magdeburg Gazette, constructed a new self-acting gun carriage, which will greatly facilitate the working of the above and other heavy guns, and a similar carriage is being made to enable the new gun to be used on ship board. Finally, a still heavier gun is in course of construction, weighing 78,000 kilogrammes, and firing a shell of 644 pounds, with a charge of 114 pounds of powder.

A Part of the Greeley Game.

[From the Chicago Inter-Ocean.]

There are millions of dollars of rebel claims on file in Washington, barred and rejected by the present rigid rules of the Treasury; but the complaints of claim agents now, and their boasts of what will be done if there is a change of administration, show that these claimants and their attorneys have received assurances that in such an event these demands shall be paid. We warn the people of the country against this deep-laid conspiracy. Three thousand millions of dollars are at stake, and no efforts will be spared to accomplish the end. The success of the scheme means the enriching of the leaders of the coalition, and the financial bankruptcy and ruin of the nation. We beg no Republican to be deceived by his previous opinions of Mr. Greeley. The man's corrupt bargaining with Democratic politicians is proven. His advocacy of the payment of pensions to rebel soldiers is fastened upon him. His guilt can be no greater when the whole iniquity is exposed, for the essential traits of treachery and fraud are already branded upon him. We cannot prevent this scandal to American politics, but we can prevent its rising into the dignity of a consummated crime, and to this purpose let every patriotic citizen devote himself.

GOOD SERVANTS.—Dean Ramsey tells us of one who was privileged to use the familiarity of an old friend. He had been so frequently censured for a certain fault that his master at last lost patience.

"John," said he, "you and I must part."

"And whaur will you be gaun?" asked John. "I'm sure ye'll no get any place like hame;" not supposing it possible that he should go.

An old Scotch lady had a servant, whose great failing was an irresistible curiosity to become acquainted with the secrets of the family life, and to whom to carry a letter to its destination without endeavoring in some way to become acquainted with its contents was a temptation too powerful to resist. On one occasion his mistress called him.

"Noo, Andrew," said she, "here's a letter I wish you to take at once, and that you may lose no time on the way, I'll e'en read it to you before I seal it up."

A curious and perhaps important discovery has been made recently by M. Kletzinsky, a Viennese Professor. Noticing that persons sick with the small-pox were often visited by flies, he placed near an open window of the hospital a saucer filled with glycerine. Soon the flies gathered, and were caught like birds with glue. In their endeavors to free themselves all the foreign matter which had adhered to them was left in the glycerine, which was at once submitted to the action of a microscope. It was found that this substance, which was chemically pure when offered to the flies, was full of strange cells, very like those seen on persons attacked by small-pox, but never on flies. This discovery proves conclusively that these parasitical insects are not only filthy, but can be very dangerous means of spreading contagious diseases.

TRIBUTE TO A NOBLE INDIAN.—The Mobile Register having stated that Tecumseh had put a stop to a massacre at the River Raisin at the risk of his own life, General Leslie Combs writes to the American Historical Record correcting the writer's mistake as to occasion and locality of Tecumseh's magnanimous interference in behalf of the whites. "I happened to know," he says, "that Tecumseh was not at or near the battle and massacre at River Raisin, but was present on the 5th of May afterwards, and commanded the Indians at Dudley's defeat, opposite Fort Meigs. On that occasion he saved my life and that of several others in the slaughter pen after we had run the Indian gauntlet, and Gen. Proctor and Col. Elliot failed or refused to interfere to save us."

The steamship California will sail for Victoria and Puget Sound to-morrow afternoon.

Recent reports from Liverpool show a more active Wheat market with pretty strong upward tendency. Wheat is now quoted in that market at prices which would pay our farmers reasonably were it not for the scarcity of tonnage and the great advance in freights since last year. Whether the advance in Liverpool can be sustained or not remains to be seen. In case it is sustained buyers and shippers here will have more confidence and can operate more largely than they have felt like doing heretofore on uncertainty. The condition of the Wheat crop in Europe is not as good as was reported some weeks ago, and discovery of this fact causes a rise in the market which comes opportunely for the American producer.

A Telegram from San Francisco to-day reports that Wheat Bags, standard size, have advanced to 15c. This is an unexpected rise, as the stock is very large. It can be accounted for only on the ground that there is unprecedented demand.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President:
ULYSSES S. GRANT,
Of Illinois.

For Vice President:
HENRY WILSON,
Of Massachusetts.

For Presidential Electors,
W. D. HARE, of Washington;
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas;
A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla.

Election, Tuesday, Nov 5, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its ascendency it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time, has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It inaugurated a new policy toward the Indians, the Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion, the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reduction from the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during U. S. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all people who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the time of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, "once a subject always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

MARSHAL'S CITATION—UNITED STATES OF America, District of Oregon—ss.

Whereas, a libel hath been filed in the District Court of United States of America, for the District of Oregon, on the 3d day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and seventy-two, by Messrs. Woodward & Goodsell, Proctors, in behalf of D. McLeod, et al., against the schooner "Augusta," her tackle, apparel and furniture, and praying that the usual process and monition of the Court, that all persons interested in said vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, may be cited to answer the premises, and all due proceedings being had, that the same may be decreed to be sold, and the proceeds thereof to be distributed according to law.—Therefore in pursuance of the said monition, under the seal of the said Court, to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give notice generally, unto all persons having or pretending to have any right, title or interest therein, to appear before the aforesaid Court at the city of Portland, Oregon, on the 2d day of September, 1872, if it be a court day, or else on the next court day thereafter, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, then and there to answer the said libel and to make their allegations in that behalf.

Dated at Portland, in said District, the 6th day of August, A. D. 1872.

THOMAS G. YOUNG,
United States Marshal.
WOODWARD & GOODSELL, Proctors. au6d14t

County Assessor's Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE BOARD of Equalization for the county of Multnomah, Oregon, will attend at the office of the County Clerk of said county of Multnomah, on MONDAY, the 26th day of August, A. D. 1872, and will publicly examine the Assessment Rolls, and correct all errors in valuation, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property; and all persons interested are hereby cited to appear at the time and place above mentioned.

All persons failing or neglecting to have their returns on file in the Assessor's office at that date will be assessed as provided by law. The Assessor will be found in his office at the Court House on Friday and Saturday of each week for the purpose of receiving such returns.

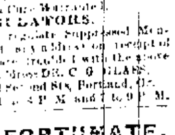
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age: "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the busiest, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."
